1. What does it mean to be “under grace” and not “under the law”? (6:14) How do people often misconstrue this truth?
2. Why should we not use grace as a means or excuse to sin? How should grace challenge us to live?
3. What is sanctification? (6:19, 22) How would you explain this process to another person? Why is it important to know and understand sanctification?
4. Why is the truth that we have been set free from sin so important in the process of sanctification? (6:20-23) Why does Paul contrast the “wages of sin” with “gift of God” in v. 23?
